

NYS THOROUGHBRED BREEDING & DEVELOPMENT FUND CORPORATION
REPORT OF 2010 PROCUREMENT CONTRACTS

Toski, Schaefer & Co., P.C. . The Fund's independent certified public accountant responsible for performing an annual audit of the Fund's financial statements

- The agreement with Toski, Schaefer & Co., P.C. was first entered into in 2008 and has been renewed through 2011 by the Fund's audit committee.
- In 2010, a sum of $12,000 was paid to Toski, Schaefer & Co., P.C. for services rendered.
- The estimated amount for 2011 is $12,000.

New York Thoroughbred Breeders, Inc. . A professional trade organization that provides promotional and advertising services to benefit the Fund

The contract has a two-year term; the latest term covers 2011-2012.
The contract expense for 2010 was $230,000.
The contract amount for 2011 is estimated at $215,000.

The Jockey Club Information System . Provides thoroughbred racing results data, program support, and troubleshooting of the Fund's awards database application, which is used by the Fund to compute Breeders, Stallion and Owner awards

- The contract is cancelable with sixty (60) days notice.
- A total of $19,363 was paid in 2010.
- The estimated amount for 2011 is $18,000.

Bryan Cave, LLC . Provides legal services to the Fund

- The annual retainer is $50,000 plus expenses.
- A total of $51,200 was paid in 2010.
- The estimated amount for 2011 is $52,000.