

Saratoga Race Course to Introduce Uniquely New York Marketplace for 2013 Anniversary Season

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. 6 The New York Racing Association, Inc. (NYRA) today announced a new weekly attraction for the 2013 meet at Saratoga Race Course designed to highlight products made exclusively in New York State.

The Uniquely New York Marketplace will be held each Sunday of the racing season at Saratoga Race Course from 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Located inside the entrance to the Reserved Seats Box Office near the Carousel, the lively market will feature 13 vendors and artisans.

“As one of the leading suppliers of food and agricultural products in the nation, New York has a proud history of producing quality, locally-made goods. It seems only fitting to showcase these products in a setting that matches their importance to the community,” said NYRA Vice President & Director of Hospitality Stephen Travers. “We look forward to inviting track patrons to learn more about businesses from the region while purchasing a diverse array of items produced exclusively in the Empire State.”

Designed to highlight geographical diversity and diversity in products, the marketplace will feature vendors from the Hudson Valley, Capital Region, Mohawk Valley and Western New York. The following vendors are scheduled to participate in the inaugural Uniquely New York Marketplace at Saratoga Race Course:

- Adirondack Candle Company of Glenville, NY
High-quality handmade candles reflecting the life and scents of the great Adirondacks
