Eligibility Rules: In order to qualify for registration as a New York-bred, a thoroughbred horse must have been FOALED in New York State and the dam of such foal must meet New York domicile requirements.

Check One:

( ) Resident Mare: Must be continuously in residence in New York State from within 120 days after last cover in the year of conception, and thereafter remain in residence until FOALING the following year.

( ) Non-Resident Mare: Must FOAL in New York State, remain in the state for a continuous period of 90 days (including the time before and after foaling), AND be BRED BACK to a registered New York stallion before leaving the state.

( ) Non-Resident Mare Purchased at Public Auction for $50,000 or More: Must enter NY within 15 days of end of sale (or within 60 days in the case of a mare purchased at public auction abroad) and remain until foaling; may then leave NY to be covered but must return within 120 days of last cover and have second NY foal the following year.

PLEASE NOTE: (1) Any false statement made in connection with this application to register a foal as a New York-bred may result in severe penalties, including prosecution. (2) The name of the breeder must match the Jockey Club breeder information exactly. (3) Award checks will be sent to the first party named as breeder. (4) Award checks are only valid for six months from the issue date and must be cashed within that period. (5) No horse can be registered as a NY-bred without first receiving certification from the Jockey Club. (6) Please type or print clearly.
