

SIMULCASTING AVAILABLE WEDNESDAY AT AQUEDUCT, BELMONT CAFÉ, THROUGH NYRA REWARDS; NO LIVE RACING

OZONE PARK, N.Y. ó As announced yesterday, due to rain, sleet, and icy conditions, Aqueduct Racetrack will not have live racing today, Wednesday, February 2. However, Aqueduct and the Belmont Café will be open for simulcasting, and NYRA Rewards telebet and internet wagering will both be available as well.

There is no charge for admission or general parking at Aqueduct for either live racing days (usually Wednesdays through Sundays) or simulcast-only days. On simulcast-only days fans will be able to enter the facility through the Clubhouse entrance.

During simulcast-only days, parking and admission gates will open at 11:00 a.m., mutuels will open at approximately noon, and the final simulcast race will go off at approximately 7:00 p.m. The bus service which is available from locations in Brooklyn, Manhattan, and Queens to Aqueduct does not run on simulcast-only days.

The heated Belmont Café at Belmont Park offers customers the ability to use self-service machines or bet with tellers, and has a variety of food and drinks available for purchase, including soup, bagels, hot dogs and assorted alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages. Parking and admission at The Belmont Café are free, with track prices paid on all payouts. Available programs include the Post Parade, Daily Racing Form, and Daily Racing Program. There is also an ATM onsite.

Hours of operation at the Belmont Café are 11 a.m. through the conclusion of live racing at Santa Anita, usually between 7 and 8 p.m. On non-racing days at NYRA tracks and Santa Anita, the Belmont Café will be open from approximately 11 a.m. ó 6 p.m. The shuttle service which runs from the Queens Village LIRR stop to the Belmont Café on live racing days will not run on Thursday.
