

Travers 1864 Restaurant Week to Celebrate Mid-Summer Derby at Saratoga

Nearly 40 restaurants throughout the greater Capital Region to offer special $18.64 menu from August 18 through 22

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. ó Nearly 40 restaurants and eateries throughout the greater Capital Region will offer special pricing and menus in celebration of the Travers during the fourth annual Travers 1864 Restaurant Week from Sunday, August 18 through Thursday, August 22.

During the five-day event, diners will enjoy a three-course meal at participating Capital Region restaurants for the prix-fixe cost of $18.64, the year of the inaugural running of the Travers, the oldest major stakes race in the country for 3-year-olds.

The area-wide offering takes place in the days leading up to the 144th running of the Grade 1, $1 million Travers on Saturday, August 24 at Saratoga Race Course.

“Travers 1864 is one element of a community-wide celebration in honor of our biggest and most historic race,” said The New York Racing Association, Inc. Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer Rodnell Workman. “We’re thrilled to have Travers 1864 Restaurant Week return for a fourth year to usher in the social and sporting event of the summer season, the Travers.”
